Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment In 2020 we continued to offer support, training, and technical assistance to programs across the state of Utah who support survivors of sexual assault. We are particularly proud of the incredible progress that was made during this year to build and elevate our coalition despite the challenging circumstances of the COVID-19 pandemic. Among the many program accomplishments that were achieved this year were: -Increased engagement with sister coalitions across the United States. -Hiring of a new executive director with coalition-specific experience. -Providing the first Spanish language 40-hour trainings. -Hosting and coordinating statewide meetings for the executive directors of all agencies in the sexual violence space. -SART Power Hour trainings. -FEMR implementation and integration(a first-in-the-nation tool for or Sexual Assault Nurse Examiners). -Strengthening mobile advocacy in rural communities throughout the state. -Prevention education meetings.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990

Organization's Executive Director and Treasurer. In addition, all board members are provided a copy of the 990 before it is filed and are given the electronic format, utilizing the Organization's online governance portal with a review and comment period prior to voting occurring.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

Each year, at the Organization's annual retreat, board members are required to review the conflict of interest policy and complete a conflict of interest form that discloses potential conflicts of interest. New board members are required to review the policy and complete the form when they first come one to the board. Potential conflicts are reviewed by the Board Governance Committee, and appropriate action is taken by the board of directors in accordance with the action requested by the Board Governance Committee. If a conflict is determined to exist for a board member, that board member must recuse themselves from any vote in which the conflict is or could be present.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official Compensation for the Executive Director is determined by the board of directors, all of whom are considered to be independent of the Executive Director. The board establishes a reasonable level of pay by considering salary survey data to identify a reasonable salary for a similar position at a similar organization within the region. The deliberation and determination of the Executive Director's compensation is contemporaneously documented in the board minutes or in a detailed budget approved by the board.
